ADVISORY OPINION

An analysis of the presented facts and pertinent statutory provisions of West Virginia Code 6B-2-5(d)(1) and (2) follows:

1. The City Councilman is a elected public official.
2. The business in which he has an interest (the Bank) is contracting with the City, a governmental agency over which he has direct authority.
3. The City Councilman has more than a limited interest since the value of his shares of stock issued by the Bank does exceed thirty thousand dollars in value.
4. Therefore, it is a violation of subsection (d)(1) of the Ethics Act for the City to conduct business with the Bank.
5. However, the affected governmental body may make a written application to the Commission for exemption, if can show one or more of the following would result: undue hardship, substantial interference, loss of quorum or excessive cost.
